A NEW GENERATION

Kitchens no longer look like kitchens. With its sleek and straight lines, the floating solitaire is a symbol of the new way of living. As an open forum, the kitchen experience space invites you to enjoy everyday life together. New lighting ideas cleverly showcase the interplay of closed elements, open compartments and shelves. The harmonious color concept creates an atmosphere of well-being.

A NEW GENERATION

Kitchens have long since stopped looking like- kitchens. Handleless and linear, the floating stand-alone is a symbol of the new way of living. As an open forum, the kitchen as a room for experiences is an invitation to enjoy the day together. New lighting ideas cleverly present the interplay between closed elements and various types of shelf. The harmonious colour concept radiates a feel-good atmosphere.

A NEW GENERATION

Kitchens no longer look like kitchens, far from it. Handleless and rectilinear, the floating solitaire is a symbol of the new home. As an open forum, a whole world of attractions in the kitchen invites you to enjoy your daily chores together. New lighting ideas ingeniously stage the interaction between closed elements, open compartments and shelves. The harmonious color concept creates an atmosphere of well-being.
